

LIFEQUEST 2012!

April 27-29, 2012

“Everlasting” (Jer. 31:3)

A weekend event for confirmation-age youth!

We learn at a young age that the things we really want let us down. The toy that we begged our parents for a few years ago, now sits in the back of our closet. The trip we were sure was going to stay with us forever is now a distant memory. And we just need to glance at our old photo albums to see the hair styles and clothes that have gone out of style. So when we encounter a God who promises us something that doesn't fade or expire, our ears perk up. In Jeremiah 31: 3, God tells us “I have loved you with an everlasting love...” This is a love that isn't based on how good we are or how nice we are to our neighbors, but a love that existed before we were even born. This is a love that drove Jesus to the cross, and by believing in Him we get life everlasting. At Lifequest, we'll look at all the things we pursue that fade and fall apart and at what our God offers us that is everlasting.

At LIFEQUEST, youth will...

Identify transitions taking place and coming up in their lives.

Be reminded of God's constant love and presence throughout these changes.

Grow in their understanding of what it means to be a part of Christ's body.

This Friday evening through Sunday late morning weekend at Camp Lone Star will be a “hands-on” experience for youth and their leaders. Together, youth and adults will spend time in small group Bible studies. Youth will explore topics of support, transition and community while spending time with other confirmation-age Christians.

Staff from Camp Lone Star will provide materials and leadership for Bible studies, devotions, games, activities and great fellowship. We hope that adults attending this retreat will spend their time interacting with the youth in their group. Adults are expected to provide supervision for their youth, act as Bible study discussion leaders and care for the medical needs of their group.

This weekend event costs $89/youth. Each group may have one adult attend free. Additional adults are $34 each. Cabins are climate-controlled, and attendees are expected to bring their own bedding. Up to 11 male youth may attend with each male adult chaperone. Up to 11 female youth may attend with each female adult chaperone. Campers from different youth groups may be housed together.

Camp Lone Star is located in La Grange, Texas, about 65 miles east of Austin and 100 miles west of Houston. A letter of confirmation, map to the camp, health form, 'what to bring' list, and tentative schedule will be sent to you upon registration.

Group registration form on back...or go to www.LOMT.com.

Questions can be answered by calling the camp at 800-362-2078.
