“A Mission of renewal and outreach in the midst of God’s creation and among His people.”

“A Changing Christ in a Changeless World”

Participants enjoy a casually-paced program of Bible study, worship and singing, interest center activities, and lots of fellowship with other like-minded Christians.

Rev. Kenneth Klaus

The Rev. Kenneth Klaus, Speaker Emeritus of The Lutheran Hour, will be the keynote speaker. He continues to write and record sermons for The Lutheran Hour and their online daily devotions as well as video clips for the Men’s Network. Klaus has 28 years experience as a parish pastor and served Our Redeemer-Dallas before his 2002-2010 years as the Lutheran Hour Speaker. Pastor Klaus is no stranger to LOMT/Camp Lone Star, having led two previous Lutherhostels.

A prolific writer, Pastor Klaus has published many works, including volumes one and two of Stories from The Lutheran Hour—A Changeless Christ in a Changing World. Come and hear his presentation on how he can now justify saying “A Changing Christ in a Changeless World” .

Rev. Marty Doering

Rev. Marty Doering, pastor living in the Chicago IL area, will be the devotion and song leader for our week. He started his involvement with Lutheran outdoors ministry in his teen years. Sessions at Camp Lone Star introduced him to the programmatic side of the ministry. In the forty years of his pastoral ministry, he has been involved with NLOMA camps from Oklahoma, New York, Colorado, and Texas, and written summer Bible studies, composed camp meal prayers, and held many, many campfire devotions at Camp Lone Star!

A “field trip”, an arts & crafts project, and interest center activities combine with worship, singing, and fun evenings to make this a week to look forward to. So come and enjoy a week at Camp Lone Star. You’ll be pampered and appreciated—and bring a friend that needs some renewal, too!

Come and join other mature adults for this event at Camp Lone Star, located on State Hwy 77, 70 miles southeast of Austin and 100 miles west of Houston. The camp is situated along the Colorado River and is the perfect retreat setting for this time of learning and renewing, both academically and spiritually. March weather is typically moderate, so light jackets and good walking shoes are in order. The dining and lodging take place in the Retreat Center. Let Camp Lone Star offer you some Southern hospitality...program will include sessions on aspects of spiritual and every-day living growth, activities that offer a chance to see local points of interest, fellowship time, and much more!
