“Taste and see that the Lord is good”

Participants enjoy a casually-paced program of Bible study, worship and singing, interest center activities, and lots of fellowship with other like-minded Christians. We'll be focusing on “Taste and see that the Lord is good” from Ps. 34:8.

The song/devotional leader throughout the week will be Pastor Matt Behrens, currently serving at Cornerstone Church in Buda, TX . Pastor Behrens understands the ‘community’ and spiritual growth that takes place at a camp—he’s a previous camp director of Camp Lone Star!

Dr. Kurt Senske, CEO of Upbring, will present on his book Wine and the Word: Savor & Serve. Many of his books use analogies focused on wine, the vineyard, and our Christian life. He lives in Austin and was a former chairman of Thrivent Financial.

Rev. Dr. Gerald Kieschnick, CEO of Legacy Deo (Lutheran Foundation of Texas), Austin, and past synodical president of the LC-MS, will give us a sampling of how to pass along a Christian legacy, and

Rev. Michael Newman, Mission and Ministry Facilitator for the Texas District Area C and prolific author living in San Antonio, who will give us a historical ‘taste’ of God’s gracious work in our church and show us how that can equip us for effective outreach today.

Offsite excursions, a demonstration meal prepared by Master Chef Mike Morphew who served at the Buckingham Palace, a yummy arts & crafts project, and other activities combine with worship, singing, and fun evenings to make this a week to look forward to. So come and enjoy a week at Camp Lone Star. You’ll be pampered and appreciated—and bring a friend who needs some renewal, too!

Come and join other mature adults for this event at Camp Lone Star, located on State Hwy 77, 70 miles southeast of Austin and 100 miles west of Houston. The camp is situated along the Colorado River and is the perfect retreat setting for this time of learning and renewing, both academically and spiritually. April weather is typically warm to moderate, so light jackets and good walking shoes are in order. A sweater is often comfortable for some in the air-conditioned Retreat Center where most of the sessions and dining take place. The motel-style Selah House is a short walk along a blacktopped pathway. Let Camp Lone Star offer you some Southern hospitality...program will include sessions on aspects of spiritual and every-day living growth, activities that offer a chance to see local points of interest, dominoes and fellowship time, and much more!
