Camp Lone Star, a facility of Lutheran Outdoors Ministry of Texas, offers a variety of resources including 260 wooded acres with hiking and jogging trails, motel-style rooms and dormitory cabins, picnic tables and benches, campfire and worship areas, a Challenge Course, high-comfort meeting rooms, quality foodservice, and frontage on the Colorado River for hosted events or programs directed by dedicated staff. Learn more about Camp Lone Star and LOMT by visiting www.LOMT.com

Event Leader

Keith R. Lund

Keith Lund will be the event's main host and leader. He has had more than 25 years of experience in outdoors ministry after being a teacher in a Lutheran elementary school for over 7 years. God's creation and history are his passions and he'll combine these two themes under the topic "In the Beginning."

Keith is the director at Camp Lone Star and serves as the executive director for Lutheran Outdoors Ministry of Texas.

Come and join others 55 years and better for this event at Camp Lone Star, located on State Hwy 77, 70 miles southeast of Austin and 100 miles west of Houston. The camp is situated along the Colorado River and is the perfect retreat setting for this time of learning and renewing, both academically and spiritually. Mid-March weather is typically moderate, so light jackets and good walking shoes are in order. The dining takes place in the modern Retreat Center. The motel-style Selah House is a short walk along a blacktopped pathway. Let Camp Lone Star offer you some Southern hospitality...program will include sessions on aspects of spiritual and every-day living growth, activities that offer a chance to see local points of interest, Dominoes and fellowship time, and much more!
