

LOMT RV Camping

If you love being outdoors and enjoy spending time with other people who feel faith in Jesus Christ is important, then an LOMT RV Campout is for you!

Each year LOMT sends out program staff to coordinate camping fun in a variety of RV parks across Texas for a retreat in winter, spring, and fall.

There are just so many great RV locations in Texas! One of the big determinations for a site includes the local attractions, especially their history and shopping opportunities!

The first night of the event usually includes a joint devotion time. The next day allows for site-seeing with an evening pot-luck meal and fellowship. All activities are optional and the atmosphere is welcoming. We hope you can join us in an upcoming retreat!

Camping in God's Great Outdoors

▶ Winter—Columbus February 24-26, Friday-Sunday

The Columbus RV Park is located in the middle of 12 quiet acres inside the city limits of historic Columbus, TX. Quiet and walker/jogger friendly trails surround the park. But the Columbus area is full of history, museums (even a Santa Claus Museum!) and audio driving tours.

▶ Spring—Fredericksburg May 4-6, Friday-Sunday

We'll return to a favorite locality in the spring...gathering at the Fredericksburg RV Park! Shopping, great food, bakeries, and German history and culture abound. Enjoy touring restored buildings in the Pioneer Village and navel history in the Admiral Nimitz museum. Just outside of town is the Wildseed Farms and Biergarten, and Luckenbach, TX—where 'everybody is somebody'!

▶ Fall—Lake Livingston September 28-30, Friday-Sunday

Our destination will be the Northshore RV Park which boasts a swimming pool and splash park! Fishing is big on Lake Livingston—and so are golf and antique and specialty shops. The Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation is in the area. This promises to be a weekend you won't want to miss!

NOTE: Registrations must reach us at least two weeks before the event to ensure reservation.
